He insisted, at the time of his trouble, that much of it was due to Senator Smith.

Wheeler, sr., one of the best known subway and transportation experts in the country, died here to-day. He had been ill several months.

Mr. Wheeler was born in New York and lived there the greater part of his He was prominently identified with the agitation which eventually gave to New York its present system of subways. He is perhaps best known, however, as the builder of the Illinois tunnel, a subway several miles long under the streets of this city, used solely for the transportation of freight. solely for the transportation of freight.

Mr. Wheeler was sixty-three years old. After graduation from the College of the City of New York, he engaged in the produce transportation husiness. Later he was identified with the construction of telegraph and railroad lines in New York and Washing-

He believed explicitly in electric un derground transportation, and shortly after coming to Chicago began a cru-sade to drive freight carrying of all kinds from the surface of the streets. His slogan was, "Carry freight underground. Leave the streets to the people" In 1873 Mr. Wheeler married Miss Cassic Gould Taylor, of Allentown, Penn., who, with her two children, Mrs. E. W. Gearhart and Albert Gallatin Wheeler, jr., survives him.

Harry Greb, that awkward young 'un from Pittsburgh, hailed as greatest of middleweights since the days of Stanley Ketchell (hailed in that flowery manner in his home town), will make his second appearance in greater New York to-night, when he takes on Johnny Howard, of Bayonne, at the Broadway Sporting Club, of Brooklyn.

We have it on the solemn word of no less astute an authority on matters. less astute an authority on matters pugilistic than John Tea Dunn, the Demosthenic Demon from Wild Flatbush, that "Howard will test Greb's skill and ability to withstand punishment to the limit." Those who have the honor of Mister Dunn's acquaintages know that he is not given ad-On September 7 the Panama Canal completed its first year of unbroken traffic due to slides and the channel is now in excellent condition. Billy Miske, of St. Paul, who is only a good sized light heavyweight, will do the David and Goliath act at the Har-lem Sporting Club on Friday night when he steps up to Carl Morris, the Oklahoma side of beef, and biffs him on the nose, or tries to. Carl, when he is trained to the bone, can craw through the ropes at about 225 pounds while Miske is a round, roly bear when he moves the scales to 175. We only hope that if Carl drops it will not be when Billy is underneath.

Silvey Burns, matchmaker of the Clermont Sporting Club, of Brooklyn is going all over that burg with brush paste pail and posters, sticking up giddy placards that herald the bout on Thursday night between K. O. Brennan, the Irish knockout king, and Jack Clifford, who eats his three heavyweight meals a day in Brooklyn. The winner of this bout will be thrown into the same ring with Jim Coffey on a later same ring with Jim Coffey on a later date.
For his Saturday night show, Brother Burns has persuaded Augie Ratner and Mike McTigue, the ferocious middle-weights, to kiss and make up, and then do battle for ten rounds. On Wednesday night, October 10, a monster benefit show of all-star bouts will

In a ten-round bout that was lightning fast from gong to gong Irish Patsy Cline outpointed Willie Jackson last night at the Manhattan A. C. It was Patsy's cleverness and speed and clear of any possible trouble most of the way and at the end no came on to win in a common gallop.

If Bush, who rode Sidney Josephthal's Meshach, had been content to take the place with his mount he surely would have landed right there, but had a foolish idea that he might beat the Schwartz horse and his efforts in that direction used up his mount to such an extent that he could not withstand the final rush of Grey Leg, who beat him for the place by a length.

The only other race that was not framed for the cheap selling platers was a six-furlong handicap for two-year-old fillies. It resulted in the best limits of the afternoon, when Bally mooney, from the stable of Samuel Ross, the Washington sportsman, outgamed Harry Payne Whitney's Rutin Law to win by a neck.
